

MEGHALAYA BOARD OF SCHOOL EDUCATION
HEADQUARTERS ::: TURA

NOTICE

Dated Tura, the 11th February, 2026.

In continuation to Notification No. 1010 dated 6th February, 2026 relating to the Internal/Practical mark entry portal, the following may be applied:

- In case of subject change and the Roll Number does not appear in the desired subject, 'NA' may be entered so that in the status it does not reflect as PENDING.
- If a Roll Number does not appear in the portal, the marks obtained by the concerned candidate is to be written in a Blank Marklist (which is available for download in the portal) and send to the undersigned in hard copy. The filled blank marklist are to be enclosed in sealed envelopes, subject-wise. Sealed envelopes must bear a label: 'INTERNAL/PRACTICAL MARKS of subject _____ (name of the subject)' on top. The envelopes must be submitted to MBOSE Office Tura/Shillong before or on the day of closing of the online portal.
- If the subject change has been done without prior permission from the Board, a fee of ₹ 300 has to be paid per candidate. Non payment of fees will lead to withholding of results.
- 'CE' is applicable only to vocational subjects and it corresponds to the Practical Assessment of 50 marks.
- Each page will contain 25 Roll numbers. After entering the marks save and repeat select subject for the remaining Roll Numbers to appear. This process has to be repeated till the portal shows (No more marks for the subject)
- The above guidelines will be applicable for both the SSLC and the HSSLC examinations.
- The respective passwords used during the online application for SSLC and HSSLC examinations will be used by the schools and centres for logging in to the mark entry portal.
